WEST POINT

WEST POINT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.1)
West Point, Va., June 22.—Wednesday will no down in history as one of the red letter days of West Point. It was a noticeable fact that just as the key of the town was presented by West Points Mayor to Mayor Richardson, of Richmond, the clouds that had been lowering all morning and showed every indication of giving forth rain, accompanied by thunder and lightning, rolled away, and the sun chased away all of the darkness. Among the noted people visiting in the town were John Lamb, Andrew Jackson Montague, B. F. Johnson and wife, C. W. Westbury and wife, of Philadelphia, Charles Fox Brookes, of Washington, Richard Erookes, of Washington, Richard Erookes, of Richardon, Of Richmond, Crosby Thompson, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Beck, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Otto S. Weight, has bee brother.

W. A. Willeroy, who represents King William In the Legislature, addressed the people here Wednesday night, under the auspices of the City Club.

Mrs. 'acey Byrd Dudley has returned from a delightful visit in Washington to 'iss Linnie Larkins, and is now visiting Mrs. P. E. Lipscomb in Hanover.

Mrs. J. H. Leath and sister, Miss Jessie Denmead, left this week for Colonial Beach, where they will spend the summer with another sister, Mrs. H. W. B. Williams.

Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Bagby have recently returned from a visit to Washington, D. C., attending while away the Southern Medical Association.

C. W. Shepherd and wife, of Richmond, are visiting Mrs. Shepherd's father, W. A. Eastwood.

WHITE SULPHUR

WHITE SULPHUR

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

White Sulphur Springs, Val. June 22—Most auspicious was the opening of the 1912 zeason at White Sulphur Springs, "the Old White," as it is lovingly named by its family of patfons, and their name is legion. Guests from the North, South, East and West were here to usher in the summer at this wonderful resort, which for more than a century, has been the most famous pleasure ground in America.

"What has been done since last year, what new features have been introduced to add to the comfort of its patrons?" is the natural inquiry at the neginning of the season. Last year, under the management of Mr. Adams, so long known in connection with the Hotel chamberlain, at Old Point, more than haif a million was spent in unprovements at 'The White," and it seemed that little was left undone. Old and new patrons alike will be delignted at the additions for the season of 1912. Most conspicuous of all these is the wonderful new bathhouse, with its magnificent swimming pool.

This building, of colonial type, to harmonize with the rest of the hotel structure, has been erected since last season, and contesjns the swimming pool, the equal of which is not in America. Lined with ceramic, mesale tile, brilliant with sunshine, this magnificent pool, 40 by 10e feet, unquestile, brilliant with sunshine, this magnificent pool, 40 by 10e feet, unquestile, brilliant with sunshine, this magnificent pool, 40 by 10e feet, unquestile, brilliant with sunshine, this magnificent pool, 40 by 10e feet, unquestile, brilliant with sunshine, this magnificent pool, 50 by 10e feet, unquestile, brilliant with sunshine, this magnificent pool, 50 by 10e feet, unquestile, brilliant with sunshine, this magnificent pool, 50 by 10e feet, unquescountry.

The grounds about the hotel haveheen, if possible, more tastefully pianied this year than last. The facade tionably colinses any other in this country.

The grounds about the hotel have been if possible, more tastefully plant. It is the facade of the new bathhouse, as one approaches from the station, is absolutely new, and with its attractive hower beds and grass piots, is a beautiful addition to the already attractive surroundings of the paisital hotel. Horseback riding has always been a feature of "Old White." As the automobiles here increase in number the comforts of horseback riding in public roads have been rather curtailed, so that innumerable bridle paths have been laid off in the picturesque country around, away from the public roads.

Catering to the motority are supported to the contest of the con

Catering to the motorist, many improvements, have been made in the roads around White Sulphur.

Golf is no longer a diversion, but a necessity, at the average resort. The nine-hole course has been wonderfully improved since last season, and is under the prefessional charge of L. K. Simpson. Mr. Simpson, by reason of his long experience in the prominent clubs of Scotland, is eminently fitted for his position here at "The White." The clubhouse, directly at the first tee, is an exceedingly attractive one, not only for the golfers, but for those who desire a loading place, pure and simple.

The cottage life, which has always been one of the most delightful features of the Springs, is additionally altractive this year because of the many improvements made in these "transplanted" homes, for such indeed they are to the patrons of White Sulphur, for here they have all the comforts and none of the annoyances of hotel life.

Among those who are back for the coming season, including the most prominent families from Richmond, are John P. Branch, Miss Branch, Mrs. Batten Grundy, Thos. B. Scott and family, John D. Potts and family, Garrett Wall and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rutherford.
